CHAPTER 10: MANNERS IN A MASJID OR ISLAMIC CENTER

- When entering, remember where you are entering and act with due respect. It is better to enter by stepping in with your right foot.
- Say Salaam to people as you see them, and do not wait for them to say it first. After removing your shoes, find a place to sit.
- Listen carefully to the speech. Do not be disrespectful during the Adhaan, Iqaamah, Salaah, or speech.
- Sit in such a manner that everyone around you is sitting comfortably.
- Do not sit against the wall if there are elderly who might need to lean against the wall.

- Sit up straight.
- If you do not understand the speech, recite Salawaat or Tasbih of Sayyida Fatimah Zahra (A).
- Avoid talking and be considerate to others. Don't play outside during speech time, and be considerate of neighbors when playing outside.
- When food is given out, wait until it is your turn or it is brought to you, and then take only one.
- When leaving, leave slowly, being careful not to push anyone. It is better to step out with your left foot first.
- Say Fiamanillah or Khuda Hafiz (I leave you in the care of Allah) to people as you leave.

1. Tawaaf of Ka'bah

After you have worn the ihraam, you can go to Makkah. You first must perform tawaaf of the Ka'bah. Tawaaf is Wajib. If you miss this, knowingly or otherwise, your Hajj is baatil.
